Software Veteran Joins Camilion Solutions Executive Team

Rob Tyrie to lead Professional Services team

TORONTO, ON— February 14, 2005— Camilion Solutions, the leading provider of product management and underwriting solutions for the financial services industry, today announced the promotion of Rob Tyrie to Vice President, Services. Tyrie joined Camilion in August 2004 as Director, Special Projects.

“Rob has made a phenomenal contribution to Camilion in his short time here and I’m very pleased to welcome him to the Executive Team,” said Chris Hoar, President & CEO, Camilion Solutions. “Rob’s experience delivering large complex projects to financial services companies will allow us to continue to provide high quality implementations and increase our professional services capabilities. His experience in growing software companies will strengthen the management team and help the company scale.”

“Camilion is building a solid Professional Services Team and I’m very pleased to be charged with leading them through the next stage of the company’s growth,” stated Tyrie. “We’re delivering solutions that are critical to our clients’ business processes and bottom line and we’re committed to making sure our impact is a positive one. We want to build a world-class delivery team to complement Camilion’s software product management solutions.”

Rob has participated in all phases of the lifecycle in software projects. Over the last 18 years, he has managed projects deploying Financial and CRM systems to Government, Banking, Brokerage and Insurance Companies. Prior to Camilion, Rob had senior management roles at Janna Systems, Siebel Systems and Angoss Software.
