Former InSystems President & CEO Joins Camilion Board of Directors

Ross Orrett adds insurance enterprise software experience to further enhance company's industry leadership

TORONTO, ON— March 16, 2005— Camilion Solutions, the leading provider of product management solutions for the financial services industry, today announced that Ross Orrett, CEO of AbovePlan Corporation and former President & CEO of InSystems Corporation, has joined its Board of Directors as an independent member.

Orrett was a major contributor to the growth of InSystems and in 2002 was named one of Insurance-Letter's 100 Most Influential People in the Insurance Industry (North America). He founded AbovePlan in 2004 to provide On-Demand sales and marketing solutions for process-centric industries like insurance.

"I'm pleased to welcome Ross to the Board of Directors," said Ron Dizey, Chairman, Camilion Solutions. "His experience in building a successful enterprise software company will be invaluable as we move forward with our strategy to become the standard for product management in the financial services industry."

"Camilion has a unique group of products offering unparalleled functionality for product speed-to-market for the financial services industry," stated Orrett. "I'm looking forward to leveraging my background to help position Camilion for continued thought and product leadership in their market."

Orrett brings over 15 years' experience in the software industry, in sales, marketing and senior executive roles. Prior to founding AbovePlan, Orrett was President & CEO of InSystems Corporation, a leading provider of document automation and relationship management solutions to the insurance and financial services industries. During his tenure, InSystems had tremendous growth – from an entrepreneurial company with less than $1 million in revenue to almost $40 million with 240 employees. InSystems was twice recognized as one of Canada's 50 Best Managed Private Companies and won an E-Canada award for 'e-business of the year'. In 2002, InSystems was strategically acquired by The Standard Register Company, a Fortune 1000 company, for US$89 million in cash.

Orrett holds a Bachelor of Mathematics degree from the University of Waterloo and was a graduate of the Stanford University's Executive Program for Growing Companies.
