Jean Fleischner, VP, Product Development and General Counsel, CNA Global Specialty Lines Receives Women in Insurance Leadership Award

Camilion Nominated Winner for Pivotal Role Played in Improving Efficiency of Product Management Process Using Enabling Technology

Las Vegas, Nevada – November 11, 2008 – Camilion Solutions, a leading provider of insurance product development solutions and next-generation policy administration systems, today announced that Jean Fleischner, Vice President, Product Development and General Counsel, CNA Global Specialty Lines, CNA Financial Corporation, the seventh largest commercial insurer in the USA, was recognized and honored as a Women in Insurance Leadership Award winner at the first annual Insurance Networking News Women in Insurance Leadership Forum in Las Vegas, Nevada. Ms. Fleischner was nominated for this award by Camilion for her instrumental role in streamlining processes, reducing costs and increasing product capacity for CNA Global Specialty Lines through the adoption of Camilion's enabling technology, ProductAuthority®, an innovative product development solution. Recognizing the need to make 'true' product management a core competency within CNA's Global Specialty Lines, Ms Fleischner spearheaded the creation of a Product Development team to drive product lifecycle management (PLM) processes. Now, lower risk, profitable products are being delivered to market with a 60% reduction in time to market – product delivery has moved from a range of 54 – 140 days to 15 – 60 days.

“Jean is highly respected by her peers and her team for her ability to motivate and foster teamwork, champion her beliefs and act as a strategic agent of change,” said Peter Wilson, Executive Vice President, CNA Global Specialty Lines, CNA Financial Corporation. “As part of Jean's commitment to a formal product management process, she has inspired synergy, brought diverse groups from across the company together, and aligned IT and business stakeholders, positioning CNA Global Specialty Lines for success. Jean is a “true” leader.”

“CNA are visionaries when it comes to product development and identifying disciplined product management as a core competency,” said Ross Orrett, President & CEO, Camilion Solutions Inc. “In an industry struggling with how to make the operational and cultural changes required to develop products to meet market, channel and consumer demands and to accelerate speed to market, Jean's vision to implement, automate and streamline the organization's product development process truly demonstrates her innovative approach and leadership within the insurance industry.”

Judging for this award included both the quantitative and qualitative aspects of the nominee's performance, as well as her overall influence on the institution, the industry and the community in which she lives and works. The judges also ranked the candidate's performance based on one or more of the following criteria: job complexity, contribution to the institution's top and bottom lines, ability to innovate and execute new products in new markets, shareholder value creation, corporate governance and ethics, management style, education and on her level of community involvement.
