Camilion Solutions and Discoverture Solutions Form Strategic Partnership to Help Modernize Property & Casualty Insurers

Toronto, Canada – March 17, 2009 – Camilion Solutions, a leading provider of modern policy administration systems and Discoverture Solutions, a premier insurance IT solutions provider, today announced a strategic global alliance to deliver best of breed technology solutions that will help Property & Casualty (P&C) insurers drive down costs and grow profitably from a robust platform. This alliance combines Camilion’s Authority Suite®, a highly configurable rules and tools-based policy administration system, with Discoverture’s extensive insurance background, integration expertise and global service delivery capabilities to deliver best-of-breed technology solutions both quickly and cost effectively. As part of this alliance, Camilion and Discoverture Solutions will collaborate in the areas of professional services to provide implementation, integration and deployment services for Authority Suite®.

“Because of the rapid adoption of Authority Suite® by P&C insurers, we started looking for best-in-class services organizations with whom we could partner – Discoverture was a logical choice.” said Susan Hutt, Senior Vice President, Services, Camilion Solutions. “This partnership gives us access to extensive experience in core systems implementation along with Discoverture’s delivery capability. Together, we provide a variety of flexible, proven and cost effective options for policy admin replacement for P&C insurers.”

“We are excited to partner with Camilion Solutions.” said Steve Addair, Senior Vice President, Insurance Technology, Discoverture Solutions. “Camilion has already established itself as a leading provider of Policy Administration solutions and the platform of choice for many large insurers. By combining our deep industry knowledge and delivery excellence with Camilion’s Java-based, SOA-compliant technologies we offer significant benefits to customers choosing to adopt Authority Suite® as their Policy Administration platform. By partnering with innovators like Camilion, we reinforce our commitment and ability to deliver powerful solutions to our insurance clients.”
